Sir:

A Chestnut has left with us about $5,000. U. S. Gold Coins, ^(Double Eagles) marked and discolored by fire, - a few pieces slightly melted, - all of it, however, unfit for circulation, in its present condition. Very little of it of shod weight. I write to ask if this money can be redeemed, or cleaned, or re-coined at the Mint. And what the cost would be for cleaning, and re-coining what is necessary. Your reply will greatly oblige,

Yours truly

Sir:

A customer has left with us about $5,000. U.S. gold coins (Double Eagles) smoked and discolored by fire, a few pieces slightly melted. All of it, tarnished, unfit for circulation, in its present condition. Very little of it at short weight. I write to ask if this money can be redeemed, or cleaned, or re-coined at the Mint. And what the cost would be for cleaning, and re-coining what is necessary. Yours reply will greatly oblige.
